ICSI
Institut pour une culture de sécurité industrielle

04 78 42 30 94
formation.continue@icsi-eu.org
www.safety-in-practice.org

Head teacher

TRAINING - HUMAN AND ORGANIZATIONAL FACTORS, AND SAFETY CULTURE

INTRA entreprise

Public

- Managers, industrial project managers, HSE managers, HR managers.
- Employee representatives and union officials.

Prerequisites

No prerequisites.

Pedagogical modalities

Several formats are available:

Face-to-face training

> 2 days of classroom training, with theoretical and more

Goals

- Understand the principles of human and organizational factors and safety culture and turn them into drivers for overall organizational performance
- Promote efficient and safe behavior through better integration of human and organizational factors
- Develop safety leadership in the managerial hierarchy and involve all staff
- Deploy the key, operational processes: just culture and the fight against organizational silence, learning culture and shared vigilance.

Programme

1. Introduction to safety culture, and human and organizational factors
2. Shared awareness of the most important risks: the different types of accidents – risk prevention with respect to serious and fatal accidents – the pitfalls of the incident rate and the Bird pyramid
3. Initiative-based and rule-based safety: building a safety model suited to each context
4. The 3 pillars of safety: technical safety, management systems, human and organizational factors (HOF) – a focus on HOF
5. The principles of leadership - Management leadership and

Funding

Monitoring of program execution

Assessment methods

FULL DIGITAL

Duration : 10h

Prices : Intra-company rates : 4 000 € HT

Icsi members and members of the Safety Academy receive a 15% discount.

FACE-TO-FACE

Duration : 2 days

Prices : Intra-company rates(): 5 900 € HT

SATISFACTION

taux_de_satisfaction : Info non disponible à ce jour

CALENDRIER Retrouvez toutes les dates de formations à venir sur www.safety-in-practice.org

Date de mise à jour : 10/02/26